SUGAR, TEMPERATURE, AIRWAY, BLOOD PRESSURE, LAB WORK, AND EMOTIONAL SUPPORT (S.T.A.B.L.E.) PROGRAM

When it comes to newborn care, quick decisions and early interventions can save lives. The S.T.A.B.L.E. Program, which stands for Sugar, Temperature, Airway, Blood Pressure, Lab Work, and Emotional Support, is one of the most respected post-resuscitation stabilization education programs for neonatal healthcare providers. Whether you're a nurse, physician, respiratory therapist, or an EMT, the STABLE Program certification can give you the essential knowledge and confidence to manage neonates during critical hours.

If you're searching for a high-quality, accessible, and trusted place to get trained in the S.T.A.B.L.E. Program online course, look no further than YourCPRMD.com. We offer a comprehensive course based on the STABLE Program 7th Edition, ensuring that you are up-to-date with the latest neonatal care protocols.

What Is the S.T.A.B.L.E. Program?

The S.T.A.B.L.E. Program is an acronym representing six clinical conditions that require urgent attention in the post-resuscitation care of neonates:

1. Sugar – Managing blood glucose levels.
2. Temperature – Maintaining thermal stability.
3. Airway – Ensuring airway patency and proper respiratory function.
4. Blood Pressure – Stabilizing circulation and perfusion.
5. Lab Work – Identifying and interpreting lab values quickly.
6. Emotional Support – Providing support to families during neonatal crises.

The program acts as a bridge between resuscitation and neonatal intensive care, helping healthcare professionals provide consistent, evidence-based care.

Why Choose the S.T.A.B.L.E. Program?

The STABLE Program certification offers multiple benefits:

- Standardized Curriculum: The same life-saving practices are taught worldwide.
- Widely Accepted: Hospitals, NICUs, and transport teams across the U.S. require it.
- Evidence-Based: Aligned with current research and neonatal best practices.
- Flexible Learning: With S.T.A.B.L.E. Program online courses, learners can complete the training at their own pace.
- Supports All Levels: Great for new nurses, experienced practitioners, and even medical students.
